NEW MEMBER ORIENTATION GUIDE

Welcome to the Southern Africa Muslimah Network!

Together in Faith, Empowerment, Leadership and Service.

1. Welcome Message

Assalamu Alaikum wa Rahmatullahi wa Barakatuh.

Welcome to the Southern Africa Muslimah Network (SAMN)!

We are delighted to welcome you into a growing sisterhood of Muslim women committed to strengthening their faith, developing their leadership abilities, empowering one another and making meaningful contributions to our communities.

SAMN brings together Muslim women from different countries, backgrounds and professional experiences, united by a common commitment to Islam, sisterhood and community development.

As a member, you are not simply joining an organisation; you are becoming part of a movement that believes in the potential of Muslim women to lead, inspire, empower and transform society.

We encourage you to participate actively, share your talents, develop your abilities and contribute towards our collective vision.

May Allah SWT bless this journey and make our efforts a source of benefit to the Ummah.

Sr Nazeerah Dlamini
SAMN Continental President

2. About SAMN

The Southern Africa Muslimah Network (SAMN) is a platform that connects Muslim women across Southern Africa and beyond.

The Network seeks to create opportunities for spiritual growth, leadership development, economic empowerment, knowledge sharing, fellowship and community service.

SAMN promotes collaboration among sisters across different countries, encouraging them to learn from one another and work collectively towards the advancement of Muslim women.

3. Our Vision & Mission

Our Vision

To build an empowered, united and spiritually grounded network of Muslim women who positively influence their families, communities and society.

Our Mission

To connect, empower and develop Muslim women through Islamic guidance, education, leadership development, economic opportunities, fellowship and meaningful community engagement.

10. A Final Word: You Belong Here!

Dear Sister,

Your voice matters. Your experience matters. Your skills matter. Your contribution matters.

Whether you are a student, professional, entrepreneur, homemaker, community worker or Islamic educator, there is a place for you within SAMN.

Let us walk this journey together, supporting one another, growing in faith and creating opportunities for generations of Muslim women.

Together, we are stronger. Together, we can achieve more.

May Allah SWT accept our efforts and grant Barakah in our Network.
